Raising attainment - Creating a friendly SLCN classroom environment

This is a free 2-day course is designed to upskill individuals in order to meet the needs of students who may have a diagnosed or undiagnosed SLCN need.

DFE SEND statistics (June 23) confirmed that speech, language, communication needs (SLCN) are the most common primary type of SEN support need with over 278,600 pupils in England. Approximately 10% of all children have long-term speech, language and communication needs (SLCN). In some areas of deprivation, more than 50% of children start school with an SLCN.

SLCN is both a primary need and an umbrella term supporting co-occurring conditions,

This course is aimed at Middle leaders, Sencos and classroom teachers and compliments all areas.

It will give participants:

- theory behind how language develops
- how to support students in the classroom
- scaffolding techniques to support SLCN students
- practical strategies that they can takeaway to develop in their own settings
